Smith & Ellison.

A railroad and levee meeting was held in Tiptonville, Tuesday last week. Col. Tipton,

Henderson, and Mr. Mitchell, of the Tennessee & Georgia

Railroad Company, were present.

Col. Tipton stated that the object of the meeting was to consider the proposition of a levee and railroad from the high lands of Lake county to Hickman, Ky., and to the Tennessee River.

Speeches were made by Messrs.

Mitchell, Lowe, Donaldson, and others. Some of the land owners present promised to subscribe their lands to secure the levee and railroad.

On motion of Mr. Donaldson a committee was appointed to cooperate with the company and conference with the citizens in regard to securing the right of way.

Following is the secretary's report of the meeting as found in the Headlight:

It is resolved, That at railroad meeting held at Tiptonville, Tenn., Sept. 24, 1888, the following gentlemen were held:

Exp. R. H. Bradford was called to the chair, and C. F. A. Hawkins was appointed clerk.

Mr. Tipton was called on to state the object of the meeting.

James J. Donaldson, M. A. Lee, J. C.

Harris, J. A. Anderson, C. M. Powell, R. S.

Bradford and A. F. Eastwood, were appointed railroad executive, advisory committee for Lake county.

Res. J. C. Harris was elected permanent chairman, J. C. Harris vice chairman, and

J. C. Harris secretary.

Adjourned.
